REYNARD FURNISHED SPORT.

Reynard the Fox, the Times-Discordant.

SOUTH HILL, Va., March 3.—The other day while riding near his farm Alex Barker, of Red Lick, found a red fox in the clutches of a steel trap. Just as he rode up the fox, which was caught by the top, succeeded in liberating itself. It was an overjoyed shot. He soon got down and captured the fox. On Saturday he invited a number of his friends to be present and participate in the chase when the animal was liberated. Reynard was given a start of about twenty minutes, but at the conclusion of the chase about forty minutes later he were in hot pursuit. The race was of short duration, and in less than five minutes he bit the dust. The carcass was then put in a bag and a "drag" ensued, which was greatly enjoyed by those who delight to follow the hounds.

TAFT ON ROOSEVELT

Incoming President Writes His Opinion of His Predecessor.

NEW YORK, March 3.—In the issue of March 6, Collier's Weekly will publish an article by President-Elect Taft under the caption, "My Predecessor." In part it says:

"No one associates with Mr. Roosevelt closely without having the strongest possible affection for him. His mind, his disposition, and his temperament are all of that class that would rather make him agree than disagree with the people with whom he comes in contact. But this is not to say that he does not enjoy a controversy and a fight, according to the rules of the game, for he does. He believes as strongly as possible in team work and to serve under another man so intensely loyal to the cause which we were both seeking to uphold and so generous to the cause.

It was announced by the Automobile Club of America yesterday that $400,000 will be spent in erecting the entrance to its proposed garage, which has recently been purchased on West Fifty-fifth Street, directly back of the clubroom, on West Fifty-fourth Street. Hits Tobacco Trust.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—A joint resolution introduced in the House by Representative Lamb of Virginia, provided that Congress shall be used to buy tobacco, cigars or cigarettes from any concern unlawfully engaged in interstate or international commerce. The resolution also stipulates that no tobacco shall be purchased by the government for delivery in time. No. 41 was classified with H. 1000, to be referred to the Committee on Manufactures.

Congressman Waldo Not Allowed to Take Final Kick at President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—In the House to-night Mr. Waldo (New York), who presented at the last session a resolution of impeachment against Leibus R. Wilsey, of the United States court at Shanghai, spoke in defense of his action. He repeated his assertions made in the House at the time, in which he cleared Judge Wilsey to have been sent to hold the office, and was about to leave the same structure on the President, when he was halted by an objection by Messrs. Mann (Illinois) and Clayton (Alabama). "He has kicked the judges out of office and run for several doctors, who live near by, returning to the house with them. No effort was made, however, to detain him. Before the police arrived he had disappeared. The police were searching for him last night.

While Miller was in the parlor with the girl last night, he asked her to go with him to-night, but she said "No," pleading that she had party promised to go to "Charlie." This seemed to anger young Miller. To appease him, the girl says she suggested that they play a game to decide the matter. If she won the first game she was to go with the other youth, but if he won, she would go with him.

He wouldn't consent to this, she says, saying that if she didn't promise to go with him he would shoot her.

She started toward him as he drew a pistol, the police say, but he fired just before she reached him.

Miller then became much alarmed and ran for several doctors, who live near by, returning to the house with them.

No effort was made, however, to detain him. Before the police arrived he had disappeared. The police were searching for him last night.

Miss Welsh was taken to the Norwegian Hospital, where it was said that she was seriously injured, though whether her condition was critical could not be told until later.

Miss Welsh is employed in the Western Union Telegraph offices, 125 Broadway, while Miller is an electrician.

PENALTY OF RED HAIR

Angry Bull Chases Titan-Headed Youth Around Chicago Corral.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The brilliant red hair of Thomas Murphy, seventeen year old, older brother of the boy who was killed to-day and he made a rush for the boy. Thomas forgot the theory of human eye power and took to his heels with the highly-indignant bull after him. Two cattlemen galloped their ponies after the pair, seeking to divert the bull by firing their revolvers into the air. In the meanwhile, the bull steadily gained upon the flying batch of red.

Tom was limited in his flight by the high fence of the corral on either side of him. There was no place to jump aside and no time to climb. The two drivers reached the fence a distance ahead of the pursued and began climbing on top, waiting the approach. When Thomas passed near the waiting men they tried to him to jump up, which did not. They caught him and swung him out of reach of the bull's horns in the nick of time.

WORKED OVERTIME

Mr. Sherman Makes Farewell Address and Is Given Ovation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—Both houses of Congress worked overtime yesterday, with the result that a bill for $500,000 to pay the first two installments to Colombia under the provision of the treaty recently ratified, and appropriation of $20,000 to pay the expenses of a commission to investigate the interests of the United States in Liberia were retained.

The bill was introduced by Senator George W. Norris (D., Neb.) and passed by the Senate, and then sent to the House.

There was no name signed.

Joseph A. Trotske, who admitted he was Mrs. Kalla's fitted suitor, went to the police station this afternoon and said he was at band practice on Easton Avenue at the time the outrage took place.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—A complete agreement was reached on the general deficiency bill to-night. THIEF WAS DISCOVERED.

Farmer Landed a Stick of Wood When He Found Lumber Pile Robbed.

GUMBOURG, DEL., March 3.—Levin Ingles, a farmer, found a stick of wood when he found a lumber pile robbed. The thief is perhaps the feature, and it explains the embarrassment incident to the board of trustees was not average until one member of the board gave notice of his intention to object on the ground that it was unwise to learn by buying itself of the equivalent of learning by experience. A motion was made to postpone the granting of a degree, the question was never officially brought before the board.

The affair has been kept out of ordinary discussion in Philadelphia, everybody concerned being able to say that the university people have no knowledge of the subject, as officially they have not. Mr. Barker laughs and says he is not surprised.

"If such a thing had been suggested, you think that at that time and under the circumstances of Mr. Taft's presence, with what the country knows of the relations of New York finance and the national government, it would have been proper for the University of Pennsylvania ostentatiously to bring together Mr. Morgan and the President-elect in the bestowal of distinguished honors."

HIGHWAYMAN WAS POLITE.

Apologized When He Held Up Young Women in Newark.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Two young women were held up and robbed of $4 by a highwayman with a revolver at the Forest Hill part of Newark Monday night. The women were Miss Flora Jane Benfield, a school teacher of 126 Highland Avenue, and Miss Margaret Sifer, of Panama, who is visiting the city. Both were held up and the women were apologetic, admitting they had been robbing the highwayman and told them that he was in bad circumstances and must have money. At first the women thought friends were playing a joke, but when the highwayman changed his tone and angrily demanded their money they handed over their purses.

After an exciting few moments of conversation and signs the highwayman let slip the unfortunate admission that he had a living husband, or wife.
